Public Sector Compliance Library

Simplify compliance training for your organisation

Public sector compliance doesn't need to be complex. Our Public Sector Compliance Library centralises everything your organisation needs to manage mandatory training, evidence compliance, and reduce risk, all in one easy-to-manage platform.

The library covers key risk and regulatory areas faced by public sector organisations, including:

- Anti-money laundering (AML)
- Data protection and GDPR
- Fraud prevention
- Health and safety

Monitor staff progress. Stay audit-ready. Deliver public services with confidence.

The Public Sector Compliance Library is a compliance management and learning hub designed specifically for public sector organisations. It brings together CPD-accredited and RoSPA-assured e-learning with audit-ready reporting to help you meet regulatory obligations with confidence.

Centralise public sector compliance management

Move from reactive compliance to proactive assurance

A smarter way to stay ahead of regulation
Our Public Sector Compliance Library helps organisations keep pace with evolving regulatory requirements through structured, up-to-date training and clear compliance oversight, reducing the risk of breaches and enabling confident, regulator-ready assurance.

Clear visibility across complex, diverse workforces
The Skillcast Portal provides a single view of mandatory training completion, progress, and compliance knowledge gaps across departments and roles, making it easier to evidence accountability and ensure every member of staff receives the right training at the right time.

Less administration, lower risk, more time for public service
By centralising training and maintaining accurate records in one place, you can reduce manual effort and operational risk, freeing up limited resources so teams can focus on delivering high-quality public services.

Supporting confident public sector compliance

Be regulator-ready

Maintain clear, accurate, and up-to-date compliance records in one place. Instantly assess progress, generate reports, and evidence compliance without time-consuming manual processes.

Save time with automation

Automated course assignments, training reminders, tracking, and record-keeping significantly reduce the administrative burden. Teams spend less time chasing completions and more time delivering public value.

Reduce risk and regulatory pressure

Keep pace with evolving regulations through consistent, role-relevant training. Reduce the risk of breaches, fines, and reputational harm by ensuring staff understand their compliance duties.

Support large, diverse workforces

Easily manage compliance across departments, locations, and roles. The platform scales across large and multilingual workforces, ensuring everyone receives the right training at the right time.

Improve engagement and accountability

Engaging, practical e-learning improves staff understanding and knowledge retention. Clear visibility of completion and attestation creates shared accountability across the organisation.

The Public Sector Compliance Library helps organisations deliver stronger governance, reduce risk, and have greater confidence in meeting public sector regulatory obligations.

Public sector compliance challenges

Increasing regulatory pressure
Help your organisation stay ahead of changing regulations, so you can demonstrate compliance confidently and reduce the risk of breaches.

Managing mandatory training and proving compliance across large, diverse workforces
Gain clear visibility of staff progress, completion, and compliance gaps, making it easier to ensure every team member is trained and accountable without extra administrative burden.

Limited resources and high-risk administration
Streamline compliance processes and automate record-keeping to free up staff time, reduce errors, and lower operational risk, allowing your teams to focus on delivering public service excellence.

About us

We help organisations foster compliance awareness and encourage their employees to act with integrity.
